Here is what Edgar L. Brennan, the hopes affairs will be arranged this week. There is no telling what a day

Died at the home of her parents near Fargo on Saturday, August 10, 1895, Melinda, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Doyle. The funeral was held on Monday. Following this sad affliction was the death of her four-year-old daughter, Mabel, on Monday. These children were sick only a short time and their sudden departure is a hard blow on the parents.
The entire community sympathize with them in their sad bereavement.

A movement is on foot, having some good substantial backers, to erect a new grist mill in Yale. Mr. Welch, the owner of the mill here, for reasons no doubt satisfactory to himself, has closed up his mill and is making no move-towards opening it up again, to the great injury not only of the village, but also a great inconvenience to the farmers who have been accustomed to get their grinding done here. Success to the move, and may it prosper be the wish of every good citizen of Yale.

My boy was taken with a disease resembling bloody flux. The first thing I thought of was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it settled the matter and cured him sound and well. I heartily recommend this remedy to all persons suffering from a like complaint. I will answer any inquiries regarding it when stamp is enclosed. I refer to any county official as to my reliability.
Wm. Roach, J. P., Primroy, Campbell

Last Friday afternoon a large audience assembled at Summer Fallow Park to witness a game of base ball between the first nines of Yale and Emmet. At the end of the ninth inning the score stood 57 to 31 in favor of Yale. Although the score stood 57 to 31 in Yale's favor the game was interesting and friendly throughout. A more jolly and friendly lot of boys could not be found than the boys who composed the Emmet team and it is hoped they may again visit our village when they will receive a hearty reception.

Mrs. James Drennan, who was in Yale only a short time ago visiting among friends, died at her home in St. Ignace Friday, August 9th, of peritonitis, at the age of 23 years. The body was brought to Yale on Saturday and the funeral held from the M. E. church to Elmwood cemetery.
Rev. J. H. Harrison officiating. Deceased leaves a husband and two small children besides a host of friends who deeply mourn her sudden departure. Mrs. Drennan was an affectionate wife, a kind mother and a loving friend.

Kenneth Bazemore had the good fortune to receive a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery. This one small bottle cured them all and he had some left which he gave to Geo. W. Baker, a prominent merchant of the place.
Lewiston, N. C., and it cured him of the same complaint. When troubled with dysentery, diarrhoea, colic or cholera morbus, give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result. The praise that naturally follows its introduction and use has made it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Will Lennon.

Eld. E. L. Waldrop will preach next church at Menerey's Corners, and in the afternoon at 3:30 in the Carless school house, and in the evening at 8 o'clock and every evening during the week in the church at Menerey's Corners. All invited.

The officers of Yale Agricultural Association met at the Rapley House sample room Wednesday afternoon and decided to have a fair and races this fall. The dates are men and 24, 25 and 26. The hotel men and citizens of the village will raise a purse of $200 and horse races will be held on the two last days. The prospects for a successful fair and race meeting were never better and if all interested will put forth every effort there will be the largest crowd of people here on those dates Yale ever witnessed.
Write your friends to visit you and encourage the farmers and others to make exhibits. A special feature would be an exhibit of poultry if special prizes were offered. Now, that it is decided to have a fair, push the matter to success.

A Plucky Little Woman.

After the remains of the late Mrs.
Downey were laid away in their last resting place last Tuesday, Mrs. Bell had a visitor, one Sandy Donaldson from Sanilac county, who in a very authoritative manner demanded the little child Eva, declaring he was going to take her away. Mrs. Bell flatly refused to give her up, but Sandy was bound to have her anyhow, and Mrs.
Bell presented a revolver under Sandy's nose with the remark that her "ball dog barked but once before biting." This argument was a little too cold for Sandy's stomach, and was very convincing for he suddenly decamped from the premises leaving the little woman master of the situation.

"They All Did Well."

The above is the verdict rendered by all those who attended the elocutionary and musical entertainment in the M. P. church Tuesday evening. Each of the young ladies who took part in the program seemed to surpass herself in excellence of rendition on this particular occasion.

The first on the program was a recitation by little Winnie Windrem.
At first appearance on the rostrum, she captivated the entire audience by her usual easy, winning manner, and delivering her selection in a pleasing way, she brought a complete round of applause from the house. This was followed by a vocal duet from the Misses Addie Palmer and Laura Bates, which was well rendered and well received. Next came another small recitation—little Flossie Kimball of Port Huron—giving a recitation to the entire satisfaction of all. The lovers of sweet music were then pleased with a piano duet by the Misses Marcia Beecher and Blanch Parker. Following this came the "sweet-voiced" Rosa McCruden in a vocal solo. Although very young this little girl shows wonderful adaptability to such exercises.
Miss M. Florence Scott was next on the program, and in her usual pleasing and interesting manner gave three excellent selections. Then came a piano duet by the Misses Sallie Williams and Louisa Andrea. This was well given, showing thorough training on the part of the young ladies. After this came Miss Scott again. This time in two pleasing selections, bringing loud applause from the audience, which was followed with a piano solo by Miss Edna Scott who did remarkably well.
Miss M. Florence Scott then gave another selection in which she pictured a Fourth of July picnic. This "brought down the house." It is conceded by all who heard her on this occasion that she can thoroughly discuss the passing passion of her selections whether in dramatic, pathetic or humorous. Last, but not least on the program, came Miss Ina Palmer in a vocal solo. Every time Ina appears in public in this capacity she seems to be improving both in voice and culture, and on this occasion she far surpassed all others.

The society wish to thank all who took part in making this entertainment a success, also Mr. J. M. Palmer for the use of his piano.
